18 clerkenwell green

18 Clerkenwell Green is beautifully light and airy, with full length balconies overlooking the Green and the rooftops of Farringdon, making it just the place for stylish City weddings and civil ceremonies.

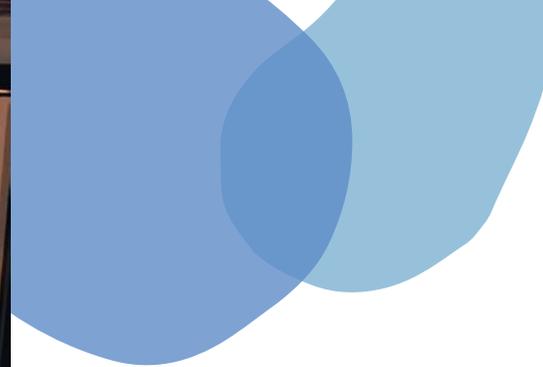

Our team are attentive but never intrusive. Our rooftop spaces look extra special lit with twinkling lights in the evening, with views out over our ever-commanding London skyline.

Our approach to food is simple and honest. We cook with skill, passion and the very best ingredients. Our clients tell us regularly that we do this to the best London restaurant standards, not just occasionally but day in, day out.

Philip Owens, our executive Head Chef, previously chef-patron of London's The Arts Theatre Café, L'Arte and Philip Owens at the ICA, has decades of experience in creating exceptional food for occasions such as Elton John's White Tie and Tiara Balls, Royal weddings and film premieres.

Whatever your vision for your wedding, we will create the perfect bespoke package using our years of experience hosting weddings and events.

“ We had the BEST DAY EVER, from start to finish. You truly made it perfect for us, starting with our waiting room on arrival - The touches in there were amazing! It turned out much better than we first planned with a big wedding and a lot more people. Who needs a big wedding, ours was amazing the way it was! Thank you all as we were both very happy!
